

ABUSA – Association des Béninois aux USA

Site Web officiel: www.abusa.org – Courriel officiel: info@abusa.org

Publié le 26 Novembre 2005 ...

Humanitarian Operations Specialist needed ...

Courtesy of Serge Akagah.

The Humanitarian Operations Specialist will organize Save the Children (U.S.) readiness to respond to emergencies including office-in-box materials, kits and capacity building of personnel. S/he will design systems for emergency response in collaborations with the other units within the organization. S/he will be expected to lead emergency response team to the field and to be lead Children in Emergency and Crises field representative of the organization during many crises. Provide guidance and the policy development on the security issue for emergency situation. S/he will organize teams of managers and the technical staff and the external source who can respond immediately to emergencies.

Additional Qualifications:

Qualified candidates must possess a Master's Degree in humanitarian-related field, preferably in water, sanitation, nutrition, protection psychosocial or shelter with five + years of overseas experience. Report writing skills. Management skills including Admin, Finance and human resources. S/he is expected to be a flexible, team player and ready to pitch in regardless of the situation. Preferably extensive emergency situation experience.

How to Apply:

Please apply for this position via our website at:

<http://www.savethechildren.org/careers/index.asp> and specify job #2748.